

Leave Indiana's do not call law alone. Before the law I would have between 14 and 20 unavailable calls on my caller id while I was at work. I got phone calls from people soliciting me with wrong information. With the law in place my call volume has drastically reduced.